

Provide comprehensive training and education to farmers on best agricultural practices, crop management, post-harvest techniques, and market trends. This will empower farmers with knowledge and skills needed to improve productivity and make informed decisions